Talasa Terra - Spacious Two-Bedroom Town House in El Verger

Talasa Terra offers a collection of modern two-bedroom duplex properties in El Verger, designed for those who would like a little more space and the comfort of having their own outdoor area. With two bedrooms and accommodation arranged over two levels, these homes offer a practical alternative to apartment living.

Each property has its own private garden and terrace, providing additional space to enjoy throughout the year. Whether you want somewhere to sit outside, create a dining area or enjoy time with family and friends, the gardens give each home its own private outdoor space.
