Villa Serena - Contemporary Mediterranean Living beneath the Montgó

Set against the dramatic landscape of the Montgó, Villa Serena is a distinctive new-build residence created around the principles of space, light and Mediterranean outdoor living.

Located in the sought-after El Garroferal area of Jávea, approximately 3 km from the town centre, the villa occupies a generous private plot in an elevated setting, combining tranquillity and privacy with convenient access to the town, beaches and amenities of the Costa Blanca.

The architecture embraces a contemporary Mediterranean aesthetic, with clean white forms complemented by natural stone detailing and expansive areas of glazing. The design has been
