This two-bedroom, one-bathroom bungalow is situated on a gated community in a popular and sought-after area of Quesada, conveniently located close to local amenities. The property is in need of refurbishment and some love and attention, but offers an excellent opportunity for buyers to create a stylish and comfortable home to their own taste, with the added benefits of mosquito blinds and new double-glazed windows enhancing comfort, energy efficiency and year-round living. Being all on one level, the property offers practical and easy living and could make an ideal permanent residence, holiday home or investment property.
